The Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1866.

HON. WILLIAM F. JOHNSTON, of this city has been nominated for Collector of the Port of Philadelphia. Mr. JOHNSTON personally, is a gentleman of much worth and ability, but we can see no good reason why the present incumbent of that office should be sacrificed by the President in order to make room for a favorite. Col. W. B. THOMAS, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia, is a high toned gentleman and ardent patriot. During the rebellion he placed two regiments in the field, through his personal exertions. He did even more to sustain his own and family reputation. Assuming the obligation of a defaulting brother-in-law, who had held a subordinate position in the Custom House, he made good, out of his private resources, the loss sustained by the government. Mr. JOHNSTON has already been rejected by the Senate as Collector of Internal Revenue in this district. It seems singular that the President should pass the claims of his Philadelphia supporters in order to confer an honor belonging to that District, upon a citizen of Pittsburgh. But Mr. JOHNSTON was among the first here to abandon the Republican party and enroll himself in the JOHNSON-COWAN clique, and is fully entitled to a renegades reward.

A. H. STEPHENS and HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON have been selected as delegates at large to represent Georgia in the Philadelphia Convention. They are worthy of front seats in the rebel conclave. If any good result could be anticipated from the mongrel Convention, we should, in common with all loyal Unionists, feel deeply humiliated, since the very men who attempted to destroy our Government are called in now to dictate a plan of reconstruction to suit themselves. Charleston should have been the spot chosen to hold the Convention, not Philadelphia—the atmosphere would have been more congenial to the delegates.

MR. WM. D. KELLEY has withdrawn his pretensions to the United States Senatorship, and expresses his preference for Mr. Stevens. He will doubtless be re-elected to the House, in which he has served three terms with unusual merit and distinction.

It is urged against Mr. Stevens that his age and infirmities make his election to the Senate unadvisable. Indeed, the intimation is thrown out that his name is used in this connection only for the purpose of defeating some conspicious aspirants. It is hardly necessary to say that Mr. Stevens is incapable of allowing his name to be used for sinister ends.

DOUBTLESS the few unthinking Republicans who have as yet failed to discover the true character of the Philadelphia Convention, will be gratified to learn that the notorious Vallandigham, of Ohio, has been elected a delegate. We know of no person in the country more worthy of a seat in the August body of renegades and Copperheads. Banished for treason during the rebellion, Vallandigham has a record that should not fail to elevate him in the affections of those who would again place the reins of government in the hands of traitors. Let him have a front seat; he is worthy of it.

MR. EDGAR COWAN finally confesses in a long, published letter, that he is affiliated with the democratic party. He tells the old story. He says the Republican party left him, by abandoning the Baltimore platform, and the Democratic party came over to him. He makes no explanation of the fact that he commenced voting steadily with the Democrats in Congress full three years before the Baltimore platform was framed.

He further states that President Johnson is in the same boat with him. Every body knew that some months ago.

BY telegraph elsewhere it will be perceived that the Committee on Commerce reported unfavorably upon the nomination of Hon. Wm. F. Johnston, as Collector of the Philadelphia Port. This is as we expected. The President finds much difficulty in disposing of his warm Pittsburgh endorser, since others, who have a word to say in the matter, cannot agree in recognizing Mr. Johnston's superior claims for office.

MR. COWAN confesses that he and President Johnson are acting with the Democrats. That was quite apparent even while loud professions were made that whatever differences existed between them and their former political associates should be fought out inside the Republican party. We put no confidence in those statements when they were made, and thought they were exceedingly verdant who did.

"THANK GOD, the Atlantic Cable is laid!" So says Cyrus W. Field and so say we all, if the important announcement proves true. A late dispatch says that Europe and America are within a moment's communication with each other. We shall wait for a confirmation of the good tidings, and in the meanwhile hope that it is "All right—De Sauty."

TAX-PAYERS have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that a number of reckless and extravagant appropriations, urged upon Congress with great vehemence, were defeated. The aggregate amount of these sums would have paralyzed the Treasury and unsettled the monetary affairs of the country, if the bills had prevailed.

MR. DENNISON, (Democrat,) member of Congress from the Luzerne District, has experienced a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, and may not be a candidate for re-election this year.

THE Democratic Congressional Convention was held at Franklin last week, and General A. B. McCalmont, of Venango, was selected as their candidate for Congress.

THE new coalition has developed its purposes by issuing a call for "a National Union State Convention" in New York. It is to meet at Saratoga on the 9th of August.

IT SEEMS France has made a new treaty by which it has made a pledge to stay in Mexico five years longer, and pay half a million dollars a year for the privilege.

WE need hardly repeat that we do not concur in Mr. Stevens' amendment to the National Currency Bill against the diminution of greenbacks.

IT is rather a novel sight to see masses of ice in July, but nevertheless they are to be seen at the Devil's Hole, at Niagara Falls, piled up the shore. The immense ice jam of last winter drove large quantities of ice high up on the bank, where the overhanging rocks shut out the sun.

The North American Life Insurance Company, of New York, presents more favorable inducements for Insurance than any other Company in the United States.

By a recent act of the Legislature of the State of New York, the Company is authorized to make special deposits with the Superintendent of the Insurance Department, and receive therefor Registered Policies, bearing the seal of the Department, and a certificate that the policy is secured by pledge of public bonds, stocks and mortgages, under a special trust, created by Act of the Legislature, in favor of the "North American Life Insurance Company exclusively." This makes every policy as secure to the holder as a National Bank Note or United States Bond.

Its policies are indisputable immediately after issue.

All its Life and Endowment Policies are non-forfeiting. None of the usual restrictions placed upon travel or change of employment. Thirty days grace allowed in payment of premium, and policy held good during that time. A credit of one-third of table rate can be had, if desired, without note. No charge for policy or stamp. F. Furnace Property at Auction.

Wampum Furnace, so well known to this great manufacturing community of ours, will be offered at public sale on Wednesday next, August 1st, on the premises, by our friend T. A. McClelland, who acts under the direction of the Receiver of the Company, S. M. Kier, Esqr.

The advertisement in another column gives a definite description of the Furnace and its surroundings, and appliances for the turning out of a superior quality of metal.

This highly valuable property lies northwest of Pittsburgh about forty-one miles, and is located directly on the line of the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad, with an extensive front on the Beaver river and Beaver and Erie Canal. It contains about 260 acres of land, more or less, throughout which Iron Ore, Coal, Lime Stone, Fire Clay, &c., are found in ample quantities.

The Company who have until a recent period been running the Furnace, hold in addition to the above, the leases of nearly all the principal mineral lands in the neighborhood.

The quality of metal produced by this Furnace has a well established reputation with the iron workers in this vicinity.

The Furnace when built was rendered one of the most complete affairs of the kind, by introducing in the proper departments everything that long, practical experience could suggest to the parties managing it.

On the premises will be found all the necessary out buildings, machinery, tramways, &c., that are usually found at such works.

The Railroad and Canal afford cheap, speedy and reliable channels of shipment for the metal produced.

Our capitalists will be looking well to their own interests, by giving this sale their attention, for seldom have they seen, or will they see such an opportunity for an investment.

Parties wishing to attend the sale can leave by the early train on the morning of the day of sale, and can return the same evening.

WM. BENNETT, JR., Secretary.
JOHN B. ELDRIDGE, President.
HARTFORD, July 13, 1866.

To the Patrons of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company:

The Old Connecticut takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that the disastrous conflagration in Portland, on the Fourth of July, has in no way affected its soundness or prosperity. It has just declared and paid its 28th dividend, and the money is in bank to pay every dollar of its losses, most of which have been adjusted and paid. The claims already adjusted reduce its whole loss to $17,000, which it is expected will be still further reduced by adjustments now being made. After paying every dollar of its losses it has a cash surplus of $60,000; can reinsure every risk, and show a larger per centage of surplus than, with very few exceptions, any company now doing business.

To the Martyrs of Liver Complaint.

Among the wonderful medical properties which have rendered HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS pre-eminent among the health-restoring preparations of the age, its anti-bilious virtues are not the least remarkable. No words can do justice to its marvelous effect upon the diseased liver. Perhaps the simple words of a convalescent sufferer, who describes it as "going right to the spot," tell the story as clearly as may be. It does go right to the spot. It operates directly upon the disordered organ, and whether unduly active or in a state of paralysis, restores it to a condition of health. The Sickness at the Stomach, pain between the Shoulders and in the Right Side, Yellow Suffusion of the Skin, Costiveness, Drowsiness and Languor, Dimness of Sight, Colic, Palpitation of the Heart Dry Cough, Low Fever, and other symptoms which indicate the various phases of Acute and Chronic Liver Complaint, are one and all promptly relieved, and finally removed, by the action of this famous preparation, which is at once the best of correctives, the gentlest and most genial of aperients, an infallible regulator, and a powerful restorative. Persons of a bilious habit, who use the Bitters as a protective medicine, will never suffer the pains and penalties of Liver disease or Bilious Remittent Fever.

Arrival of the Peruvian.

THE WAR ON THE CONTINENT.

Military Situation Unchanged.

FORCES CONCENTRATING BEFORE VIENNA.

Satisfactory News from Great Eastern.

AUSTRIANS DEFEATED BY ITALIANS.

FARTHER POINT, July 28.—The steamship Peruvian, from Liverpool on Thursday, July 19, via. Londonderry on Friday, July 20th, passed this point at five o'clock this afternoon en route to Quebec.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH TO LONDONDERRY.—Liverpool, July 20.—The military position is unchanged. Great forces are concentrating on both sides before Vienna.

The Moniteur says that Prussia has consented to abstain from hostilities for five days; provided that Austria agrees to do the same, and give her decision on the basis proposed within that period.

The news from the Great Eastern continues very satisfactory. About nine hundred miles of the Atlantic Cable had been paid out.

Cotton has declined ¼c on the week. The sales of the week have been 71,000 bales; to-day's (Friday) sales are estimated at 12,000 bales, the market closing steady. Middling Orleans quoted at 14¼d, and middling uplands at 13¾d. Breadstuffs very dull. Corn easier. Provisions dull. Consols for money 88⅛@88¼. United States 5-20s 69⅝@70. Illinois Central shares 42⅞@42¾. Bullion in the Bank of England decreased 347,000.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Blackstone announced the withdrawal of the Compulsory Church Rate Abolition bill for the present. The Elective Franchise bill was also withdrawn.

Sir R. Mayne, Chief of the Metropolitan Police, had issued an order forbidding the proposed reform gathering in Hyde Park on the 23d inst., declaring it illegal, and stating that measures would be taken to prevent the assembling of the meeting.

THE WAR.—The Prussian General Falkinstein, has established his headquarters at Frankfort and issued a proclamation announcing the assumption of the governments of Nassau and Frankfort. The Prussians have also occupied portions of Bavaria.

The Frankfort Senate has been dissolved.

In Southern Germany the Prussians established their headquarters at Lundenburg on the 15th inst.

The military correspondent of the London Times with the Prussian army, says another Prussian reserve is about to be formed, which will raise the army to 800,000.

On the 17th inst., the Italians in force, attacked Borgo Fort. The cannonading lasted several hours. During the night the Austrians withdrew, and abandoned their guns, ammunition and provisions. The Italians occupied Borgo Fort, and were enthusiastically received by the inhabitants. The Italian loss was slight.

The Austrian commander in the Tyrol claims to have driven the Italians across Caffara river. Garibaldi is said to have been present at this affair. The Austrians took two hundred prisoners.

A telegram from Vienna announces the arrival there of M. Benedetta, the French ambassador. The Emperor of Austria is stated to have decidedly refused to accept of the Prussian conditions, excluding Austria from the Germanic confederation.

The Prussian official Gazette says that the treaty of alliance between Prussia and Italy declares that neither party shall conclude a peace or an armistice without the consent of the other.

A Berlin semi-official paper gives the following as the Prussian demands:

In addition to the complete settlement of the question of the duchies which the future are to act in unison and be under the control of Prussia, Russia demands as the principal object of the war, the establishment of the unity of Northern Germany under the leadership of Prussia, and, moreover, requires the exclusion of Austria's influence as a power of the confederation. All that Prussia asks is the establishment of a union of her eastern and western provinces, which has become indispensably necessary.

The Emperor Napoleon, recognizing the justice and moderation of these demands, has accepted the same as a basis of peace, and has resolved to remain neutral in the event of their being refused by Austria.

The Moniteur contradicts the Journals, which appears to believe that the French cabinet, in offering its good offices, wished to induce Italy to conclude an armistice independently, and was preparing to take part of an armed mediator in France. It says that France intervened diplomatically with the idea of bringing about peace. Threatening measures would have created more serious complications.

The Morning Post says that France has decided to avoid any concentration of French troops on the frontier towards the seat of war.

FRANCE.—The Paris Bourse closed firm on the 18th inst., at 68.

London Money Market—The funds on the 18th inst. improved ⅛ per cent., owing to the peace and harvest prospects. The discount demand was quiet.

London, July 20.—The Prussians have commenced a regular siege of the fortress of Mentz.

The anticipated truce between the Prussians and Bavarians has been definitely concluded. The Federal troops defeated at Aschaffenburg are forming a junction with the Bavarians.

The headquarters of Prince Alexander, of Hesse Darmstadt, are at Waiduns.

The Italian fleet, consisting of some ironclad vessel and several steamers, opened an attack on the Island of Lissa, on the coast of Dalmacia. After several hours obstinate fighting, Admiral Perzune with eight iron clad vessels, silenced the fort of St. George. The powder magazine in the fort was blown up during the engagement. Vice-Admiral Albani joined the squadron of Admiral Perzune. He was about to give orders for a disembarkation when he was apprised of an Austrian squadron approaching to prevent this design being carried out, and the Italian fleet was soon afterwards preparing for an engagement with the Austrian squadron.

Twelve thousand Austrians have left Trent for Muestbruck. The Italian van guard was at Pioan on Wednesday.

The Austrians on Mount Domino attacked the Italian forts, but soon retired from the fear of the Italian artillery.

The Swiss Federal Assembly has resolved on the immediate adoption of breech loaders for the Swiss army.

The Frankfort Contingent has been disbanded. Military clubs are closed. The city of Frankfort has paid a contribution of 6,000,000 of florins towards the maintenance of the troops.

The following is a summary of the news taken out by the City of New York, from Liverpool on the 18th:

In the House of Commons Mr. Mill gave notice of a question as to whether the government intended to prosecute Governor Eyre, of Jamaica.

Lord Stanley gave a contradiction to the rumor that England would not allow Prussia to seize Hanover. The motion for the ballot was gained by a large majority.

An engagement took place before Olmutz on the 15th, and the Austrians were defeated with the loss of sixteen guns. The Austrians were making a rapid retreat out of Moravia.

The Prussians occupied Sandenburg on the 17th, cutting communication between Olmutz and Vienna. The entire Prussian force was being concentrated upon Vienna.

The Prussians occupied Frankfort on the 15th.

The Austrian forces were retiring into the fortresses of Venetia, but were making some preparations to defend the passages into the Tyrol.

Prince Napoleon had gone on a special mission to the Italian headquarters.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 29.—The Great Eastern left Shearness on Saturday at noon, June 30th, arrived at Bearhaven on Thursday morning, July 5th, and received the balance of her coals and provisions. The other steamers joined the Great Eastern at Bearhaven as follows:

The William Corry and Perriole on Friday July 6th.

The Albany on the 7th, and midway on the 10th inst.

On Saturday, the 7th of July, at the end of Irish Shore the cable was landed from William Corry, and at 2:30 next morning the laying was successfully completed, and the end buried in ninety-four fathoms, latitude 51:40 deg., longitude 11.08, distance from telegraph house at Valentia, 27½ miles, 29½ miles of cable paid out.

Friday, 13th.—Shore end was connected to main cable on board Great Eastern, and at 2:40 P. M. telegraph fleet started for Newfoundland, and the Racoon returned to Valentia. Telegraph fleet sailed in the following order: Terrible ahead of Great Eastern on starboard bow; the Medway on port, and Albany on starboard quarter. Weather thick and foggy, with heavy rains. The average speed of the ship from the time the splice was made until we saw land was a little less than five nautical miles per hour, and the cable has been paid out at an average of five and one-half miles per hour. The total slack was less than twelve per cent. The weather has been more pleasant than I have ever known on the Atlantic at this season of the year; we have had alternate days of rain, sunshine, fogs and squalls.

I have requested Mr. John C. Dean, Secretary of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, to send you by the first opportunity, for Associated Press, twenty-five copies of his diary, which will give you a detailed account of the ups and downs experienced in laying a cable across the Atlantic. We have been in constant communication with Valentia since the splice was made on the 13th inst., and have daily received news from Europe, which was posted up outside of the telegraph office for the information of all on board the Great Eastern, and signalled to other ships after taking in coal.

The telegraph fleet will sail for the spot where the cable was lost last year, to recover the end and complete a second line between Ireland and Newfoundland, and then Medway will proceed to lay the new cable across the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

The cable will be open for business in a few days, and all messages will be sent to Europe in the order they are received at Heart's Content. I cannot find words suitable to convey my admiration for the men who have so ably conducted the nautical, engineering and electrical departments of this enterprise so successfully, amidst difficulties which required to be seen to be appreciated. In fact all on board of the telegraph fleet, and all connected with the enterprise, have done their very best to have the cable made and laid in a perfect condition, and He who rules the winds and the waves has crowned their united efforts with perfect success." CYRUS W. FIELD.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27th, via ASPY BAY, July 29th.—The London Times of the 27th, says of the telegraph: It is a great work, the glory of the age and nations, and they who have achieved it deserve to be honored as benefactors of their race.

A treaty of peace has been signed between Austria and Prussia.

A previous telegram says that a five days' armistice between Austria and Prussia commenced at noon on the 23d. There was a fight on the 22d the Austrians claiming a victory.

Earl Shaftsbury had protested in the House of Commons against the reform meeting. In a discussion on the tariff, Sir John Pakington admitted that England was behind other nations.

A serious engagement took place on the 20th off the Island of Lissa. The Austrians claimed a victory. They sank the Italian ironclads, running down one and blowing up three.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27.—To His Excellency, President Johnson, Washington, D. C.: SIR: The Atlantic Cable was successfully completed this morning; I hope that it will prove a blessing to England and the United States, and increase the intercourse between our own country and the Eastern Hemisphere.

Yours faithfully, CYRUS W. FIELD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29—Cyrus W. Field, Heart's Content:—I heartily congratulate you, and trust that your enterprise may prove as successful as your efforts have been persevering. May the cable under the sea tend to promote harmony between the Republic of the West and the Governments of the Eastern Hemisphere.

[Signed.] ANDREW JOHNSON.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27, 1866.

The Hon. William H. Seward, Washington:—The Telegraph Cable has been successfully laid between Ireland and Newfoundland. I remember with gratitude your services in the Senate of the United States, in the winter of 1857, and recollect with pleasure the speech you then made in favor of the Telegraph bill. That you may never have reason to regret what you have done to establish communication across the Atlantic, is the sincere wish of your friend

(Signed) CYRUS W. FIELD.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Cyrus W. Field, Heart's Content—Acknowledgements and Congratulations.—If the Atlantic Cable had not failed in 1858, European States would not have been led in 1861, into the great error of supposing that civil war in America could either perpetuate African slavery or divide this Republic. Your great achievement constitutes, I trust, an effective treaty of international neutrality and non-intervention.

Signed, WM. H. SEWARD.

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27.—To the Honorary Members of the Atlantic Telegraph Company:—I congratulate you on the successful completion of telegraphic communication between Ireland and Newfoundland, and hope within two weeks from this time, to inform you that the cable lost last year has been recovered, and that a second line is in operation across the Atlantic. I assure you that all on board the telegraph fleet will do all they can to accomplish this object.

(Signed,) CYRUS W. FIELD

HEART'S CONTENT, July 27.—To the Directors of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company:—We arrived this day. The cable has been laid across the Atlantic, and is in perfect working order. As soon as we have taken in coal we shall proceed to the spot where the cable was lost last year, and when recovered will splice it with the cable on board of the Great Eastern and return to this place, then Medway will proceed to lay the cable across the Gulf of St. Lawrence. I cannot express to you how thankful I feel that you will now receive some return for the money that you have spent, and the time that you have devoted during the last half year to connect by telegraph our own country with Great Britain. CYRUS W. FIELD.

The following is a list of the Directors of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company: Peter Cooper, Cyrus W. Field, Moses Taylor, Marshall O. Roberts, Wilson G. Hunt. FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Mayor Monroe Announces His Intention to Disperse the Convention—Procession of Negroes—Disturbances—Three Negroes Killed—Policemen Wounded.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—Gov. Wells has arrived from Red river.

The Convention meets on the 30th.

Mayor Monroe has addressed a letter to Gen. Baird, informing him that he intended to disperse the Convention and arrest the members, unless protected by the military authority. Gen. Baird says no protection has been asked, and ridicules Monroe's proposition. He says if a legal convention, it had a right to meet; if illegal, it was harmless pleasantry. He concludes by saying that he shall prevent violence and preserve order.

All the State officers have formally protested against the Governor's proclamation, and the Secretary of State refuses his seat.

After the adjournment of the meeting last night, the negroes formed into procession, and armed with clubs, brickbats, &c., went howling through the streets, threatening violence. At the meeting the speakers had used violent language. Two or three disturbances occurred in the city, resulting in the killing of three negroes. Three police officers were badly bruised by the negroes. All is quiet now. Ten or fifteen negroes have been arrested and jailed. It is understood that efforts are making by the Chief of Police to have the speakers who used violent and incendiary language arrested, and that a committee of citizens will wait on General Sheridan to ask aid to suppress the efforts of those exciting the black population against the whites.

The Convention Troubles—Mayor Monroe Telegraphs the President, Receives an Answer, and Thereupon Issues a Proclamation.

NEW ORLEANS, July 29.—Yesterday the Attorney General of State and Lieutenant Governor telegraphed to the President informing him of the violent and incendiary proceedings and speeches at a Republican negro meeting the night before, stating that a serious riot was feared; that the Governor had issued a proclamation calling for an election to fill the vacancies in the bogus Convention, and that he was in league with the Republicans; that it was intended indicting the members of the convention by a grand jury, and asking if the President intended that the military forces of the United States should interfere to prevent the execution of the civil process, to which the President replied from Washington,

To Albert Voorhees, Lieut-Governor of Louisiana:—The military will be expected to sustain and not to obstruct or interfere with the proceedings of the courts. A dispatch on the subject of the convention was sent to Gov. Wells this morning.

[Signed.] ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Mayor issued the following proclamation:

Mayoralty of New Orleans,
City Hall, July 28th, 1866.

WHEREAS, The Extinction Convention of 1864 proposes meeting this day; and whereas, intelligence having reached me that the peace and good order of the city might be disturbed, now, therefore, I, John T. Monroe, Mayor of the City of New Orleans, do issue this, my proclamation, calling upon the good people of this city to avoid with care all disturbances and collision, and I do particularly enjoin the younger members of the community to act with such calmness and propriety as that the good name of the city may not be tarnished, and the enemies of the reconstruction policy of President Johnson be not afforded an opportunity so much courted by them of creating a breach of the peace, and of falsifying facts to the great injury of the city and State. I do further enjoin upon all good citizens to refrain from gathering in or about the place of meeting of said extinction Convention. I am satisfied from recent dispatches from Washington that the deliberations of the members thereof will receive no countenance from the President, and that he will sustain the agents of the present civil governments, and vindicate its laws and acts to the satisfaction of the good people of the State. JOHN T. MONROE.

In an interview with the Mayor, yesterday, General Baird stated positively that he would prevent the Sheriff and posse, or any State or civil officer, from interfering with the Convention.

The Tribune, a Republican paper, says the Convention will meet to-morrow and adjourn till the middle of September.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Only nine cases of the so-called cholera were reported by the Board of Health yesterday in this city, and eight in Brooklyn, one of which proved fatal. Reports from Hart's and David's islands are more favorable. The mortality lists for the week show a considerable increase in the number of deaths.

The Charleston Prisoners Removed.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 29.—The four prisoners sentenced by military commission, but subsequently reprieved by the President, whose attempted liberation on a writ of habeas corpus occasioned the recent conflict of authority between General Sickles and the United States District Court, were quietly removed last night by a steamer, under guard, from Castle Pinckney. The military, with orders, refuse information concerning their present whereabouts. The impression is that they were sent north beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

The Saengerfest Excursion to the Mammoth Cave.

LOUISVILLE, July 29.—The Saengerfest wound up to-day with a grand excursion to the Mammoth Cave. Over one thousand were present. Everything passed off quietly. Owing to the disarrangement of programme by those in charge of the cave, the concert did not come off, but there was an abundance of extempore vocal and instrumental music.

There is great excitement at the announcement of foreign news through the Atlantic cable.

SECRETARY HARLAN'S RESIGNATION.

Brevets for Gallant Services.

CHOLERA AGAIN AT MECCA.

Minority Report on Jeff. Davis' Complicity with the Assassination.

CODIFICATION OF CUSTOMS LAWS.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The following is a copy of Secretary Harlan's letter of resignation:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27, 1866.

To the President:—Having heretofore informed you of my readiness to withdraw from the Cabinet when it might accord with your pleasure and convenience to name my successor, and in pursuance of an understanding arrived at in a recent interview, I hereby tender my resignation of the office of the Secretary of the Interior, to take effect upon the first day of September next. In thus severing my official connection with your administration I would do injustice to my own feelings were I not to present my thanks for the uniform courtesy and kindness shown me during my term in service. Praying that the supreme ruler of nations may bless you with health and vigor to endure the arduous labors incident to your high position, and wisdom to carry into effect such wise measures of policy as Congress may devise to secure the domestic peace and national unity, I have the honor to be, with great respect, your obedient servant,

JAMES HARLAN,
Secretary of the Interior.

The Senate has been very liberal in connection with the Executive Department in bestowing brevets for gallant and meritorious conduct in the field, the honors having been conferred for services as far back as the first battle of Bull Run. In some cases no less than three brevets have been given to one person, and volunteer as well as regular officers share in these complimentary promotions, which do not carry any extra pay with them. Nor are they altogether confined to fighting men. Recruiting, Commissary and Quartermaster officers, and those who have performed duty in various other branches, and some possessing military titles, but who never even wore the army uniform, have been similarly breveted. On the last day of the session of Congress, the Senate confirmed in gross over two hundred brevets from Major Generals down to First Lieutenants, in addition to the thousand heretofore sanctioned by that body.

The U. S. Consul at Port Mahon again writes that the cholera has broken out among the pilgrims at Mecca more violently than ever, and that the French and Spanish authorities are enforcing a very strict quarantine over all vessels from the infected ports.

Mr. Rogers has made a minority report on the complicity of Davis in the assassination. He complains of obstacles thrown in his way by the other members of the Committee. He was only permitted to see the whole testimony on Friday noon. He says the main portions were ex parte, and made without opportunity of cross examination. The evidence of Sanford, Conover, Murratt, and others, is styled worthless and unreliable. He concludes with an urgent appeal for turning Davis over to the civil authorities for trial.

Under a recent joint resolution General Garfield and Senator Creswell have been appointed by their respective branches of Congress to codify the customs laws. A third person is to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Treasury designs taking steps to remove the obstructions from the James River.

Mr. Romero, the Mexican Minister, received to-day official news from the vicinity of Chihuahua, the present residence of the Mexican Government, up to the 30th ult.

President Juarez and his Cabinet and Government arrived at Chihuahua on the 17th, having met with a very enthusiastic reception from the people of the city of Chihuahua and the other towns of the State through which they passed.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Row in a Brick Yard.

On Saturday at an early hour a difficulty occurred between the workmen at Moore's brick yard, in the Seventh Ward, which, however, terminated without any damage being done. During the day some lager beer was brought on the premises, the party procuring it thus paying a wager laid on the result of the International Sculling Match. The effect of the beer caused a revival of the morning's dispute, culminating in a regular row, and the summoning of the police. One individual, armed with a poker, did considerable execution, whilst another brandished a razor, and brickbats and clubs flew about promiscuously, but we heard of no one receiving serious injury. A squad of the Mayor's police, headed by Chief Hague, appeared upon the ground, but the combat had ceased, and the combatants scattered. The police were about departing without making any arrest, when officer Moon's attention was attracted to a man named Manning, who was talking in a manner calculated to lead to another row. He was requested to desist, and became insolent. Officer Moon threatened to arrest him, when Manning offered violence, seizing Moon by the coat and almost tearing it off his back. A well directed blow from Moon's fist brought the fellow to terms, and he was taken to the Mayor's office. The Mayor, after hearing the case, imposed the light fine of five dollars, which was paid. At the office Manning and a friend who had accompanied him there, used very insulting language to officer Moon, and we feared for a few moments that there would be blows exchanged; but the officer, who was much out of humor, refrained from doing at the time and place what he might have been in a degree excusable for doing under other circumstances. In this instance of an officer suffering and receiving abuse for doing what was required of him, we can't resist the inclination to express our opinion that the Mayor should have imposed a heavier fine, and that the insolence used should have been properly rebuked.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

Between two and three o'clock Friday morning the fast freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, going west, met with a frightful accident at the Swatara Creek iron bridge, near Lancaster. As the train was nearing the bridge, an axle of one of the cars broke and was dragged to the bridge, where it was thrown over, carrying with it some six or eight cars, all of which were smashed up and the contents of the cars, embracing sugar, dry goods, &c., were jumbled together in a promiscuous heap. A colored man whose name we have not learned, and who was stealing a ride over the road, was killed instantly, and three other colored men were badly injured. A brakesman on one of the cars made a narrow escape of being carried down with the wreck, jumping off just as the car on which he was went over the bridge. The scene of the accident is described as being a frightful one, most of the cars being completely smashed up, and the others so badly injured that they cannot be used again.

Coroner's Inquest Concluded.

The Coroner's jury summoned to hold an inquest upon the negro girl Caroline Ford, who was so cruelly ravished and murdered at Sewickley, on the 9th inst., concluded their labors Saturday afternoon. As there was no evidence whatever before the jury, they rendered a verdict that the deceased came to her death from violence at the hands of some person or persons unknown. Thus, one of the darkest crimes ever committed in this county remains shrouded in the deepest mystery, and in all probability the perpetrators will escape the vengeance of the law. It has been established beyond the reason of a doubt, that there were two or more persons engaged in the deed, and it seems hardly probable that they could have been strangers in the neighborhood or to the girl. The authorities of Sewickley should use every exertion to unravel the mystery and bring to light the perpetrators. If an experienced detective were employed to work up the case, we doubt not that at least a clue to the murderers would soon be obtained.

A Little Girl Seriously Injured.

A little girl of John Murray, of Baldwin township, met with a severe accident on Saturday afternoon, that may be attended with serious results. At the request of her mother she went to a draw well, some distance from the house, for the purpose of procuring some drinking water. After filling the bucket half-full, she started to draw it up, but when it had almost reached the top her strength failed, and she was forced to let go her hold on the windlass, the handle of which struck her with terrible force on the right side of the head, inflicting a scalp wound of three or four inches in extent, and knocking her down a declivity some ten feet, where she laid insensible until found by her brother a few moments after. Dr. Denny who was sent for, examined the wound, and found that the skull had been fractured, and the right arm broken by the fall. When the physician left her she was doing as well as could be expected.

An Attempt to Blackmail.

One of our most prominent public magistrates was charged before Alderman Donaldson, on Saturday with adultery. At the hearing it was discovered that the lady who made the charge was forced to do so by her husband who threatened to take her life if she did not do as he directed. His object in prosecuting the case was to obtain "hush money" but in this he signally failed, as the accused was discharged on the testimony of the prosecution. It is but a short time since the same parties received $200 from a prominent citizen for withdrawing a suit of a similar character, preferring to do this rather than figure in such a case. The names of the "blackmailers" are Mr. and Mrs. John Clark.

Discharged.—Thomas Morgan, the proprietor of the Western Hotel, on Penn street, appeared before his Honor the Mayor yesterday, and charged a boarder at his establishment, named John C. Davis, with the larceny of a watch chain valued at fifteen dollars. Davis was arrested, and after a hearing, was discharged, the evidence being insufficient to warrant the prosecution.

Bather Fined.—Benjamin Holmes was fined $5 for bathing in the Allegheny river yesterday evening before dark, by the Mayor.

Homicide in Collins Township—The Perpetrator in Custody—He Confesses the Deed.

A homicide of a peculiarly distressing nature occurred yesterday morning at the residence of Mr. David Holmes, a short distance east of the village of Hatfield, on the Sharpsburg plank road, in Collins township. The circumstances surrounding the melancholy affair are about as follows: About ten o'clock on Saturday night two young men named Henry Bray and Henry Helligen, living neighbors in Hatfield, started, while under the influence of liquor, to visit two girls employed in Mr. Holmes' family as domestics. On reaching the house they were met by one of the girls named Louisa Taylor, who told them they might sleep on the kitchen floor if they did not wish to return home until morning. After some further conversation the girls retired to their room, and Bray and Helligen laid down upon the kitchen floor and slept until morning, when they were awakened by the cook, Mary Harning, who advised to go home as something might be said about their remaining all night in the absence of Mr. Holmes and family, who at present are in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

They signified their intention of doing as the girl requested, but when she went to the stable to milk the cows, they started up through the house on a tour of inspection. After lounging in the parlors and thumping on the piano, they ascended to the attic, where the servants slept, and threw themselves upon one of the girls' beds, after which they went into an inner room, where they found an old Springfield musket standing in a corner. Bray picked the gun up and asked Helligen to give him a cap from a box that stood on a desk in the further end of the apartment. The latter complied, handing Bray two and putting the remainder in his pocket. Bray then proposed firing the gun out of the window, but his companion objected on the ground that it would frighten the girls. Helligen then started to go down stairs, but just as he reached the landing Bray said: "Don't go down stairs; if you do, I'll shoot you."

Unheeding the warning, doubtless believing it to have been spoken in jest, Helligen moved closer to the stairs, when Bray leveled the weapon directly at him, and fired. Without uttering a word Helligen fell to the floor, the blood oozing out of a wound on the left side of the head, a little above the ear. Bray gave the alarm immediately, and Dr. Robinson was summoned, who, on examining the wound, found a considerable number of large shot had entered the brain, which was sufficient to cause death. Bray expressed the greatest regret at the occurrence, and stated that he was entirely unaware of the gun being charged. He accompanied the wounded man to his residence, where the latter died at half past eleven o'clock, two hours after the shooting had taken place, never having spoken a word from the time he was taken up.

About noon Bray surrendered himself at the Mayor's Office and was locked up. His version of the affair is embodied in the above.

During the afternoon Coroner Clawson proceeded to hold an inquest on the remains, but after empannelling a jury the inquest adjourned until eight o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Helligen, the mother of the deceased, is very anxious that nothing shall be done to Bray, she being fully convinced that the shooting was accidental. On the other hand, one of the boys employed by Mr. Holmes states that he loaded the gun for the purpose of protecting the orchard, and that he is positive he only put of shot in the weapon, while the discharge shows that there was a very large load in it, the ceiling and walls containing quite a quantity.

While we believe the killing to be the result of accident, we cannot refrain from expressing our censure of Bray's conduct on this occasion. In the first place, it was almost criminal in him and the deceased visiting Mr. Holmes' residence, while that gentleman was absent with his invalid wife, and conducting themselves in the manner in which they did; and in the next place, the girls are not altogether blameless in permitting the house, while under their care, to be converted into an asylum for inebriates, while Bray, in his reckless handling of a deadly weapon, shows a criminal carelessness for human life that should not go unpunished.

The deceased was about twenty-one years of age, and was employed as a stone-cutter in Charles Miller's marble works, in the borough of Lawrenceville. Bray has not yet reached his nineteenth year, and prior to this occurrence has borne a good character.

The Homeopathic Hospital.

Editors Gazette:—The writer from the Second ward, complaining of the remarks of Judge McCandless, and particularly of the location of the hospital, exhibits in strong terms the spirit which characterizes the general opposition to the progress of Homeopathy. The reckless and exaggerated statements respecting the location and surroundings of the buildings betray a spirit ill at ease and probably much mortified at the results of the action of certain members of council, and the exposure which followed. Had the gentleman reflected calmly before writing he might have come to perceive that the Doctors of this school have a way peculiar to themselves in their general practice, and do not consult with persons of the temper and manner of "Second Ward" concerning their hospital buildings, nor the treatment of patients therein. From the temper betrayed in his article, I cannot but think that his statements were intended, not so much for intelligent readers as to mislead and disquiet the ignorant, of whom I am happy to think there are few in the Second ward. "Second Ward" ought to have been informed that, by the regulations of the hospital, patients with infectious diseases are not admitted. And, further, that well regulated hospitals have never been known to be centres from which diseases of any discription have been propagated.

SECOND WARD NO. 2.

Reception of Hamill.

Preparations for the reception of James Hamill upon his return from England, are nearly completed. An adjourned meeting of his friends was held on Saturday evening, at which Mr. Henry Kane presided. The committee having the matter in hand, reported satisfactory progress in the way of procuring funds. Mr. John Paisley was chosen to officiate as Chief Marshal on the occasion of the reception, and Messrs. John J. Torley and William McClure to act as Aids. Mr. H. Beaumont is now in New York, and will there await the arrival of the American champion and accompany him home. Another meeting will be held this evening.

Worthy of Patronage.—We had a call yesterday from Miss M. Buckley, of Freeport, who is at present canvassing this city for the sale of Littleton's famous photograph of the death bed of Abraham Lincoln. Miss Buckley is eminently worthy of the patronage of the patriotic community, having an aged widowed mother depending on her exertions, since her brothers were both killed in the service of their country during the war. Orders for the really beautiful specimen of photographic art may be left for Miss Buckley at the Gazette office. The young lady will personally call upon our citizens and we trust she will receive liberal encouragement in the sale of the pictures, as she is in every respect worthy of it.

Child Scalded.—A little daughter of Hugh Magill, residing in the Seventh ward, was severely scalded on Saturday morning, under the following circumstances: Her mother had been washing, and had placed on the stove a kettle full of clothes and gone out to a neighbors to borrow some starch. In her absence the little girl, in endeavoring to get a cup full of hot water out of the kettle, upset it, the contents pouring over her person from the shoulders down, scalding her to a considerable extent. Medical assistance was at once summoned, and at last accounts the little sufferer was doing well.

Election of Teachers.—The School Board of the First Ward, Allegheny, at their meeting on the 27th inst., elected the following Teachers for the ensuing year: Principal—H. W. Bancroft. Assistants—Miss Sarah M'Laughlin. Principal of Grammar Department—Miss Mary E. Carpenter. Assistants—Miss Mary May, Miss Agnes Lamont, Miss Jennette H. Lecky. Intermediate Department—Boys—Mrs. M. B. Bart, Miss Mary E. Boyd. Girls—Miss M. J. McDonald, Miss M. Dorrington. Primary—Boys—Miss Jennie M. Frazer, Miss Mary J. McLain. Girls—Miss S. A. McQuig, Miss Sarah Lysle.

Birmingham Public School Building.—While on a visit to Birmingham yesterday, we noticed among other improvements those that are being added to the public school building. The entire interior of the building has been renovated, the ceilings handsomely frescoed, and the wood-work repainted, the predominating colors being brown and white. The exterior is also receiving attention, and before vacation expires, it will be one of the neatest and handsomest educational edifices in the county.

Want to be Divorced.—In the Court of Common Pleas, on Saturday, seven petitions for divorce from matrimonial bonds were presented. Following are the names of the parties:

George C. Lang vs. Elizabeth Lang.
Charles Cook vs. Mary Cook.
Sarah Graham vs. Wm. Graham.
Hannah M. Lake vs. Peter J. Lake.
Samuel Bigley vs. Jane Bigley.
David Lewis vs. Abitha Lewis.

Arrest on Suspicion.—Two men named John and David Anderson were arrested in New Castle last week on suspicion of being the parties who robbed Mr. Eli Wykoff, in South Pittsburgh, a little more than a week since. Upon a hearing, however, they were discharged, nothing appearing to warrant their being held. The arrests were made by officer John Coyles.

Disappeared Mysteriously.—It is reported that Mr. John Berwick, a citizen of Manchester, left his residence on Tuesday, 17th instant, to make some collections in the vicinity of Butcher's Run, since which time his family have had no tidings of him.

Infant Found.—On Thursday night last some workmen in removing an outbuilding near the corner Federal and Wylie streets, in the Sixth ward, discovered the remains of an infant in a box. They were almost decomposed.

Firemen's Parade.—In accordance with the constitution of the Association, the time for the annual parade of the fire department is on the first Saturday of September, and preparations for the event are in active progress.

Sunday Selling.—On Saturday a clear case was made out against Patrick Murphy, tavern keeper in the First ward, for selling liquor on Sunday, and Mayor McCarthy required him to pay the usual fine, fifty dollars.

Income Returns.

The income returns of the citizens of this District will be published to-day by some of our enterprising contemporaries. We hold such publication of the private pecuniary affairs of our citizens to be productive of no good, but the source of great annoyance, and indeed injury to the merchant and manufacturer. The people should not hold newspapers only responsible for thus exposing their returns to the world. It is legitimate news for their readers. The fault appears to rest with the Assessor or Collector of Internal Revenue, or perhaps with both of these public servants. By law they are made the custodians of the secret business figures of all, from the poorest paid clerk to the heaviest coal merchant or iron manufacturer. In giving the returns to the newspapers they violate their trust, and the people should hold them alone accountable for their publication.

Grand Trot at Oakland Park To-Day.

Major Van Voorhis has prepared another treat for the lovers of the turf in the way of a grand trot, to take place this afternoon at half-past three o'clock, for a purse of three hundred dollars. The following spirited and well-known nags have been entered: "Josephine," by Samuel Keys; "Joe Curry," by J. S. Bettler; "Annie Laurie," by Felix Laverty; "Joe, the Orphan Boy," by Major Van Voorhis. A spirited race may be anticipated, and from the grit and mettle of the nags entered we may safely promise this to be the race of the season. Every arrangement for "man, woman or beast" has been made by the attentive proprietor of Oakland Park, and we trust there will be the usual number of spectators. Read the Major's card in another column.

More Railroad Accidents.—On Saturday last a man named Bernard McBride fell from the platform of a passenger car of the emigrant train west, near Cresson, and was run over and instantly killed.

James Moore, an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, was killed in jumping off the Cincinnati express train east, at White Hall, last night. He was a very worthy young man, and leaves behind a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Warrant Issued.—Amanda Gilmore appeared before Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, and made oath against Letitia Somerby for assault and battery. The parties are both colored, and reside in the Seventh ward. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Letitia.

Held to Bail.—Margaret Murphy was before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, on a charge of surety of the peace preferred against her by Anson Johnson. She was released on giving bonds to the amount of $300 not to do Anson any bodily injury.

Disorderly Conduct.—James Thompson was before Alderman Humbert, on Saturday, charged with disorderly conduct on oath of Martha Spray. After a hearing the accused was acquitted, Martha being unable to sustain the charge.

Maltreated.—Officer Seth Wilmot was roughly handled on Pennsylvania avenue yesterday afternoon by a party of roughs, while endeavoring to make an arrest. One of the rowdies was subsequently arrested and lodged in the tombs.

Larceny of Copper.—A young lad named Benjamin Wallace, was before the Mayor on Saturday charged with the larceny of three hundred pounds of copper from the premises of James Scott. He gave bail to answer at Court.

Settled.—James Thompson was before Alderman Lynch Saturday, charged with surety of the peace on oath of Dennis Hewland. The matter was adjusted by Dennis withdrawing the charge and Thompson paying the costs.

Assault and Battery.—Maurice Murphy appeared before Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, and made oath against Thomas Jamison for assault and battery. The accused was arrested, and gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Larceny.—Mary Davidson was charged before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, with the larceny of a tin bucket from the dwelling of Sarah Crawford, in the Ninth ward. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Fined.—The proprietor of a drinking saloon on Water street named Patrick Murphy was fined $50 and costs by Mayor McCarthy, on Saturday, for selling liquor on Sunday.

False Alarm.—The alarm of fire last evening between eight and nine o'clock was false.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

It has fallen to the lot of no constituent assembly to have higher and more important duties devolved upon it than the American Congress, whose first session has just closed. Excepting a comparatively few members the two Houses were chosen during the progress of the great rebellion, and convened within a few months of the cessation of actual hostilities. Considerably more than two-thirds of the members of both chambers were elected by the party that, with most heroic energy and self-sacrifice, sustained the government, and upheld the honor of the nation throughout the war. In point of intellectual endowments and moral qualities no abler or better men were ever delegated to perform a public trust. Of course, individual exceptions can be pointed out to this remark, but on the whole no representative body in this country, or any other, ever contained a larger amount of talent or patriotism.

However the case may appear to men who do not know experimentally what it is to be overmastered by a great and disinterested emotion—to be ruled, not simply on the surface, but down into the inner recesses of their being, by a cardinal principle that subordinates to itself all other ends and aims—the men, on whom the chief burden rested of sustaining the government were thoroughly imbued not only with the sentiment of national unity, but with the higher feeling that the Union was intended to mean personal and political liberty to all born or naturalized under the flag, and an example and light to all other peoples struggling against despotisms up to independence and enfranchisement. It happens, necessarily, that such men are in earnest. They do not view politics as a game to be played with skill but not with feeling—the end being simply personal promotion and party ascendency. They see that politics inevitably involves sacred rights, privileges, and results—the highest next to religion itself—and that deviations from recognised principles are as culpable in this domain as in any other.

An appeal having been made from the Constitution and the Laws to the arbitrament of the sword—and the march of events, under the leadings of Providence, having eventuated in a decree of liberty for all the inhabitants of the land—the loyal representatives of the nation, following as well their own instincts as the promptings of those by whom they were elected, determined to make this decree much more than a shadow and an enigma—a splendid reality, a vitalizing and revivifying force. What happened? Being earnest men, they are misunderstood by those who are not. Some look on, with whom this great drama is only a play. They wore masks and paraded through all its mighty scenes without comprehending that it touched not only the springs of the nation's life, but the cords of liberty, for all men throughout the coming generations. They are still inclined to treat it as a masquerade; and they carp and cavil at all whose levity is not equal to their own.

In laying anew the foundations of the government, the labors of Congress would have been arduous under the most favorable circumstances. They have been vastly increased by the recreancy of the President. Born and reared in a Southern State; a Democrat by profession, but with some antipathies against slavery, not so much on the score of principle as by reason of disparagements to which he was subjected by the slave barons on account of his obscure birth and lowly breeding; carried beyond his convictions by the powerful impulse of the struggle, and by that inordinate oppugnancy which is a predominant trait of his organization; when the war-cloud rolled away and the calm of peace settled down once more upon the land, a reaction came over him, and he reverted measurably to his original position. He saw accomplished all he really desired in the crushing of the rebellion. At his side—the chief of his Cabinet—was a statesman as richly endowed, both by nature and education, as any personage of this century. Cool, sagacious, subtle—a machiavelian spirit—with whom words and phrases, principles and interests, are counters in a stately game—nourishing a personal grief, and watching to revenge the blighting of his ultimate ambition—ready to blot the brilliant record of a long career, to cast a dark shadow over his just renown, and stop the dignity of his soul, that he might appease his insatiable wrath. Near him was another—once in President LINCOLN'S Cabinet—a man of ordinary powers, but restless and implacable—thrown up to commence by some inexplicable casualty—and with few sympathies common with those among whom he cast his lot, by whim or calculations ejected from his place in obedience to the demand of the National Convention he has demonstrated ever since the mistake made in his elevation and the justice of the sentence by which he was deposed. These three devised a scheme for putting themselves at the head of the party of reaction, for the purpose of stopping the flow of events and turning back the current as far as practicable. They entered into a league, offensive and defensive, with the rebels, and their friends at the North. They practiced concealments and duplicities from the beginning of the session to near its close, claiming to be still republicans when they were not—to be acting with the party to which they owed power, when they were only endeavoring to detach men from its support, to undermine its influence, and consign it to humiliation and disgrace.

Under such circumstances the task of Congress was exceedingly hard. If the President and Cabinet had maintained their integrity, if they had co-operated with Congress, as the people by whom they were chosen desired, the work of reconstruction would have been speedily accomplished, and on a basis securing the just rights of all, and promotive of permanent peace and harmony. As the case stood, the Executive Department became a fortress, into which the defeated rebels ran for security, and in which all manner of plots were hatched against the loyal portion of the nation and their representatives. The marvel is not, that for a time the action of Congress was confused and discordant; but that at last the majority in the Houses, detecting the traps and pitfalls set for them, were able to come to substantial agreement, on middle and safe ground, and erect some efficient barriers against the surrender of the government into the hands of its adversaries.

The whole matter now goes to the people, under the provisions of the Constitution and Laws, for their determination. Most of the Republican members of Congress have been or will be re-nominated; certainly almost all who have acted conspicuous parts. Allegations have been freely made that these members, regardless of their obligations to their respective constituencies, and animated solely by a spirit of faction, were bent upon a policy the people did not demand and would not sustain. Hence, the issue is fairly made up. The loyal people of this country own the government, and have a right to do with it as they will. The opportunity is now presented them either to rebuke their immediate representatives, or to pronounce a formal approval of their conduct. We feel no apprehensions as to the result. Whatever differences may have temporarily existed in consequence of the craft and guile of the President and his followers, the real issue is now understood, the hearts of the masses of the people are sound and true, and a verdict will be rendered confirming the views of Congress and bidding them go back to the discharge of their duties next December with the assurance of such popular support as can neither be despised nor resisted.

THE CANVASS.

So far the democratic mass convention at Reading may be regarded as the only note-worthy demonstration made by either political party in this commonwealth since the nomination of candidates for Governor. That demonstration fell far short of the expectations of those who were concerned in getting it up. Quite a number of notable persons were in attendance from remote portions of the State. Some delegations were secured from adjoining counties. But the mass of the democrats of Berks were too intent on securing their crops, or pursuing their other vocations to break away and listen to stale addresses on political questions. It may be safely affirmed that no election for Governor, has happened during the last quarter of a century that did not elicit a greater degree of democratic enthusiasm in that stronghold.

The comparative apathy disclosed in Berks county is apparent in democratic ranks in all parts of the State. Election results for some years past have not been calculated to create animation. The democrats have been so often and so signally rebuked at the ballot box, that they have lost that confident bearing which formerly characterized them. Most of their leaders are engaged in searching for new issues and in projecting new alliances which shall furnish encouragement. Profitting by the discipline of the war they have renounced the doctrine of State Rights, which was the germ of secession and of the dogma that it is unconstitutional to coerce a State, and claim to be pre-eminently the Union men of the nation. The new shibboleth fits their mouth so badly they make bungling work in pronouncing it; and the unwonted sounds abash and confound their followers.

Some expectations of a more promising aspect of affairs are indulged from the action of the Philadelphia Convention. But if anything can be prognosticated from the discordant clatter of tongues which now prevails touching that convocation—who are elegible to seats in it, what topics shall be proposed and discussed; and what measures recommended—it is that no substantial results will flow therefrom. Of course it will resolve to demand the immediate and unconditional admission of the Southern delegations to seats in Congress; for that measure is acceptable to all the disloyal elements in the nation, and to all the elements outside that are opposed to our ultimate harmony and continued greatness. Beyond that the deliberations do not promise unity of method or result.

Awhile ago no little uncertainty was imparted to movements on the Republican side by diverse conceptions of the President's Policy, and consequently, of contradictory action relative to him and it. Not a few of our leaders seemed inadquately to comprehend the situation; and some manifested a disposition to succumb to blandishments or threatenings rather than continue a contest the end of which they could not distinctly foresee, and which might subject them to loss of positions of emolument or honor. After a time the nature of the issue was brought out in vivid relief, so that no mistake could be made concerning it. Directly all uncertainty vanished from the Republican ranks, and a closing up and preparation for united exertion was entered upon. It is exhilerating to witness the auspicious change in this particular that a month has wrought.

To-day the Republican army in Pennsylvania presents as compact a front as at any former period. A few conspicious defections exist, but not more formidable in numbers and influence than always happens in political organizations of any sort. A good deal of preparatory work has been performed in disseminating intelligence by means of the press and soliciting local candidates, and soon the labor of oral discussions in mass meetings will commence in earnest. We have no fears of the result. The patriotic party that not only held Pennsylvania to its allegiance during the rebellion, but made it a pillar of strength to the national cause, will again carry its flag in triumph from the Ohio to Lake Erie, and from Lake Erie to the Delaware, and roll its anthem of victory over the tops of the Alleghenies.

—The old Greek proverb that "there is many a slip between the cup and the lip," is likely to be again verified in the case of the great estate which was said to have fallen to Mr. Walker, of Hartford, Conn., by the death of some distant relatives in England. The announcement of this piece of good luck has been pretty extensively advertised in the papers of the United States, and the result has brought to light a long lost brother of Mrs. Walker's father. Mr. John Church, living near Buffalo, New York, who by reason of his priority of birth claims to have a better title to the property.

—Darwin Merrill, accused of the murder of his brother, in Wyandot county, last September, has just been tried, in Crawford county, for murder in the first degree, and acquitted on the ground of self-defense. The verdict gave great satisfaction to the community generally at Bucyrus, but great dissatisfaction to the people of Upper Sandusky, who have made some unwarranted public demonstration, by way of resolutions, condemning the Court and Jury.

—There were seven hundred and sixteen deaths in Philadelphia last week—something unprecedented for that city. Of these eight were caused by cholera, and forty-four by sunstroke. This unusual mortality is ascribed to the extreme heat, which was greater than has been known there since 1778. The deaths for the corresponding week last year were not so many by two hundred and seventy-three.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Report of the Conference Committee on the Army Bill—The Civil Appropriation Bill Amended—Judge Patterson, of Tennessee, Admitted to a Seat in the Senate—O. H. Browning Confirmed as Secretary of the Interior—Jeff. Davis and the Assassination of President Lincoln.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—After an executive session the doors were re-opened at five o'clock A. M. The Senate agreed to the report of the Conference Committee on the Army Bill as agreed upon. The bill is substantially the last one passed by the Senate. It provides for an addition to the army of two companies each to the twenty-seven existing battalions of infantry, eight new regiments of infantry, four of which shall be colored, and four Veteran Reserve. Also four new regiments of Cavalry.

Mr. Sherman, from the Conference Committee on the Civil Appropriation Bill, asked that the Committee be instructed to agree to the House amendment on the subject of bounties in a modified form.

The instructions were given—yeas 27, nays 5. The Senate again went into executive session.

The Senate admitted Judge Patterson to his seat this morning, on taking the oath.

The Civil Appropriation bill has passed both Houses. After a third conference, the Bounty bill passed as a rider.

Col. Ludlow, a member of Gen. Dix's staff, and recommended by him, was this morning appointed Naval Officer of New York.

The Senate this morning confirmed the appointment of O. H. Browning as Secretary of the Interior.

At one o'clock the Senate went into executive session.

HOUSE.

The following is a continuation of last night's House proceedings. The Senate bill for the admission of Nebraska was passed by a vote of 63 to 52.

The Senate joint resolution, continuing army regulations, came up, and on motion of Mr Schenck, who characterized it as a contrivance of the Senate to avoid passing an army bill. It was laid on the table.

A report on the Deficiency bill was agreed to.

The Conference Committee report on the Civil Appropriation bill was received returning increased compensation of Senators and Members of Congress, making the pay of the Speaker $8,000. It was rejected by a vote of, yeas, 14; nays, 10.

Another conference was asked for from the Senate.

The Conference Committee on the Army Bill reported, and the report was agreed to.

Mr. Boutwell, from the Judiciary Committee, made a report on the alleged complicity of Jeff. Davis in the assassination. The report affirms that the evidence in the hands of the Committee justifies the assertion that there is probable cause to believe that he was privy to the measure which led to the commission of the deed, but the investigations of the War Department and the Committee have not placed them in possession of all the facts. The capture of the rebel archives has put the Government in possession of a mass of documents throwing light upon the general policy of the rebel authorities, which is, to some extent, developed by the report. The report is very lengthy, and is mostly composed of extracts from evidence and documents in possession of the Committee. Referring to affidavits taken by Judge Holt, and the contradictory testimony of the same witnesses before the Committee, they are unable to determine which is true and which false. It is recommended that the investigations be pursued. They conclude that there is no insufficiency in the laws for the trial of Davis.

Congress will not adjourn before four o'clock p. m. to-day.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Bounty to Soldiers and Pay of Senators and Members Increased—Resolution of Thanks—Speech from Speaker Colfax.

SENATE.

The doors were reopened at 7 A. M., the Conference report on the question of bounties having previously been agreed to. The bill provides that those who served three years, or enlisted for three years and were discharged for disability before the expiration of their term, shall receive one hundred dollars; those who enlisted for two years and served that period or were discharged for disability shall receive fifty dollars.

A recess was then taken till 9 A. M., at which time two Senators and President pro tem appeared in their seats. A further recess till 10 A. M. was taken.

The Senate reassembled at 10 A. M.

Mr. Wade reported the House bill to increase the duty on imported wool, and moved it be taken up.

Mr. Spangler moved to lay Mr. Wade's motion on the table. The vote resulted:

Yeas—Anthony, Buckalew, Conness, Cresswell, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foster, Guthrie, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Johnson, Love, McDougall, Morgan, Nesmith, Sprague, Sumner, Vauwinkle, Wiley, Williams and Wilson—22.

Nays—Chandler, Davis, Edmunds, Howe, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Ross, Sherman, Stewart, Trumbull, Wade and Yates—12.

The bill to distribute the reward for the capture of the assassins of the late President, was then taken up. The bill was then passed as amended and sent back to the House for concurrence in the amendment.

Mr. Patterson, from Tennessee, appeared at the Vice President's desk, and took the oath of office.

The joint resolution granting the use of a building for meetings held with a view to the liberation of Ireland, elicited some debate, in which our obligations to maintain neutrality were put forth in strong terms by Mr. Johnson.

He was replied to by Mr. Howard, who pointed to the conduct of England during the rebellion, and said he knew of no people who had shown such love of country as the Fenians.

Pending this discussion, the joint resolution exempting officers and soldiers from the special five per cent income tax, came up and was passed.

The bill to exempt pensions from the income tax was defeated.

Mr. Wilson offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire what legislation, if any, is necessary to prevent the recapture of persons escaping from involuntary servitude in Cuba.

Mr. Doolittle rose and said that as there was nothing now before the Senate, he would take the occasion to make a personal explanation which he had some time since promised. He then proceeded to read a speech in relation to the resolutions of the Wisconsin Legislature requesting him to resign. The arguments and statements made use of by Mr. D. have heretofore been given in these reports, in debates between him and his colleague, Mr. Howe.

Mr. Howe took the floor in reply to his colleague, discussing questions connected with the State politics of Wisconsin.

Mr. Cowan at 3:45 called up a bill just from the House, entitled an act for the relief of certain drafted men. It directs the Secretary of War to refund three hundred dollars to each person drafted twice within one year, and who paid commutation twice; also to refund in all cases where it shall appear that persons furnishing substitutes were not liable to military duty. It was objected to, and it goes over.

Mr. Vanwinkle offered a resolution calling upon the President for whatever heretofore unpublished communications may be in his possession, touching the claims for military service, made by France and Prussia upon naturalized citizens of this country, which was adopted.

Mr. Harris offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of two to join a committee of the House, to wait upon the President, and inquire if he had any further communication to make with Congress. The resolution was adopted, and Messrs. Harris and Nesmith were appointed said committee.

A joint resolution for the payment of the Chaplain of the House for the Thirty-ninth Congress was received from the House, and passed at 4:25.

At 4:30, Mr. Harris, from the Committee to wait on the President, reported that the President had no further communication to make.

Mr. Buckalew offered a resolution of thanks to Mr. Foster, for the impartial manner in which he had presided during the session, which was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Foster briefly returned his thanks for the compliment contained in the resolution, and then declared the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE.

The resolutions reported by the Judiciary Committee relative to the complicity of Davis in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, were adopted.

The Conference report on the Civil Bill, as presented to the Senate, increasing the salary of Congressmen and Senators and paying an extra bounty to soldiers, was presented, whereupon there was much fluttering. Some asked a division of the question, which could not be done under parliamentary law. There seemed at first to be some hesitancy about ordering the yeas and nays, but Mr. Conkling called upon the members to rise and let the vote be taken squarely, and the yeas and nays were ordered.

There was considerable excitement and for a time breathless attention, as each member answered to his name. As the roll was about completed, groups of members stood around the Clerk's desk waiting to hear how the vote stood.

Mr. Schenck rose to a question of order, insisting that it was against the rule for members to be near the Clerk's desk while the vote was being taken, and the Speaker so ruled.

At the end of the call, there was a majority of ten votes in the negative, but then there were several members who had not answered when first called. Some who had voted aye, finding themselves likely to be in a minority, changed their votes to nay, and again when the tide turned changed back to aye.

The members who voted aye then began to explain their votes.

Mr. Hogan said he was opposed to the increased pay, but was in favor of bounty for the soldiers, and therefore voted aye. (Laughter.)

Mr. Hubbard, of West Virginia, followed with a similar statement.

Mr. Driggs hoped that these gentlemen of the yeas who were forced to take increase pay would turn over the excess to the soldiers.

Mr. Ferry, from the same state, said he had voted three times against the increase of the salary to Senators and members, but that this being the best opportunity of voting in favor of a bounty for the soldiers, he felt compelled to change his vote from no to aye, but he stood ready to pay over the excess to the soldiers and challenged his colleague, Mr. Riggs to do the same.

Mr. Schenck asserted with characteristic bluntness that he voted aye to both propositions.

Mr. O'Neill voted aye for the sake of the bounty proposition.

Mr. Wentworth, of Ill., after showing so much anxiety for the previous forty-eight hours to vote against the increased pay of the members, was not in the hall when the report was made and the vote taken. At length all the members present had voted and the oft changed list showed a majority of one in favor of the report. The vote was thereupon taken, yeas 81, nays 80. So the conference report was agreed to in both houses, and the bill now only awaits the signature of the President.

The following was the vote in detail:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Banks, Barker, Benjamin, Berger, Clark, (of Kansas,) Cullom, Driggs, Ecaley, Eldridge, Farnsworth, Farquhar, Ferry, Glossbrenner, Higby, Hogan, Holmes, Hotchkiss, Hubbard, (of West Virginia,) Ingersoll, Jencks, Johnson, Kelly, Kerr, Kuykendall, Latham, Le Blond, Leftwich, Marston, Maynard, McClurg, McCullough, Miller, Moorhead, Meyers, Newell, Niblock, Nicholson, O'Neill, Rice, Patterson, Randall, (of Pa.,) Rice, (of Mass.,) Rice, (of Maine,) Schenck, Strouse, Taylor, (of Tenn.,) Tyler, (of New York,) Thornton, Vanhorn, (of New York,) Vanhorn, (of Missouri,) Whaley.

Nays—Messrs. Allison, Ashley, of Nevada; Baker, Baxter, Bidwell, Bingham, Boutwell, Brownell, Broomall, Cobb, Conkling, Defrees, Eggleston, Eliott, Finck, Garfield, Harding, of Illinois; Hartabell, of Ohio; Kasson, Ketchum, Koontz, Laflin, Lawrence, of Penna.; Lawrence, of Ohio; Lynch, Mercer, Morrill, Morris, Orth, Paine, Pershaim, Phelps, Plants, Price, Ritter, Ross, Sawyer, Shanklin, Shellabarger, Stone, Taber, J. L. Thomas, jr., Trumbull, Van Arman, Walker, Wilson, of Iowa; Wilson, of Pa.; Wright.

The House at a quarter of 8 o'clock a. m. took a recess to 11 a. m.

The House met at 11 o'clock a. m.

Mr. Stevens wanted his vote recorded in the affirmative and Mr. Rollins in the negative, in the appropriation bill, they being absent when the vote was taken.

The usual resolution of thanks to the Speaker was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Rogers presented a minority report on the alleged complicity of Davis in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln.

The amendments to the bill distributing awards for the capture of the assassins, were concurred in.

The bill to refund $300 to persons drafted twice within one year, paid commutation, furnished substitutes or served, was passed.

Messrs Spaulding and Williams had their names recorded in the affirmative on the civil appropriation bill.

The House refused to let Mr. Delano have his name recorded in the negative.

Mr. Scofield also announced that he would have voted "no" if present.

The House took a recess until 3 o'clock.

Mr. Latham, from the Committee on Printing, offered a resolution to print, for the use of the House, 10,000 extra copies of the provisions of the act of the equalization of bounties of soldiers.

On motion of Mr. Defrees, the resolution was laid on the table.

The House took another recess til 4 o'clock, the second recess.

The Speaker laid before the House the President's veto of the bill erecting the Territory of Montana into a Surveying District, and for other purposes. It is disapproved because of sections embodied in it for the benefit of the New York and Montana Iron and Manufacturing Company, the President having heretofore vetoed the special bill having that object.

The message having been read, it was, on motion of Mr. Bingham, referred to the Committee on Territories and ordered to be printed.

There being nothing before the House, Mr. Ancona offered a resolution, jocularly, for the appointment of a select committee of twenty-one to inquire into the alleged abduction and detention of members from the sessions of the House when important measures were pending, with power to send for persons and papers, and to sit during the recess, and to report to the Philadelphia Convention on the 14th of August. [Laughter.]

Mr. Anderson desired to know in the same connection where the gentleman from Chicago (Mr. Wentworth) was when the vote was taken on the Conference report on the Civil Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Eldridge moved that the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Wentworth) have five minutes to explain where he was when the vote was taken this morning on the increasing of compensation of members. (Laughter.) Unanimous consent was given.

Mr. Wentworth said his remarks might extend over five minutes, and he would therefore write them out and have them published in the Globe. (Laughter, and cries of object.)

A joint resolution for the payment of the Chaplain of the House was introduced, read three times and immediately sent to the Senate, and received back in a few minutes engrossed, signed by the Speaker, and sent to the President for his signature.

Messrs. Morrill and Finck were appointed the committee on the part of the House to join a committee on the part of the Senate to notify the President that Congress had concluded its business.

In a few minutes subsequently Mr. Morrill reported that the committee had so informed the President, and that the President had stated he had no further business to communicate.

The hour of half past four o'clock having arrived, the Speaker delivered his farewell speech. He said:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:—I cannot speak the word that announces our separation until I thank you with all the warm emotions of a grateful heart for the unanimously adopted resolutions you have placed on your journal. Unusual as this is, at the close of the first session of Congress, its value is thereby enhanced, and I prize it because I believe it is your sincere endorsement of my endeavors to administer the duties of this responsible and often trying position with manifest impartiality, to maintain the just rights of a majority, and to protect the even more necessary rights of minority, and yet hold the scales so fairly poised that every decision shall stand the test of reason and parliamentary law. Watched as a presiding officer always must be by scores of practiced eyes, his position is never less than difficult, and he is fortunate who can impress the body over which he presides with the conviction that his constant aim has been to render justice to all. Meeting here amid the frosts of every winter, and parting after such a prolonged session amid the torrid heats of summer, friendships have been formed which will brighten as year after year rolls away. Discussing some of the gravest questions ever submitted to a deliberative body in this land, the attrition of mind with mind, and conflicts of thought and action, have left but few stings behind; and despite all differences of sentiment. No Congress, within my experience here, has closed its sessions with more general good feeling amongst its members. We go back, as our institutions wisely prescribe, to submit to our constituents the issues which have divided us here, and to cheerfully abide by their verdict as a court from which there is no rightful appeal. Wishing you all a safe journey to your homes and a happy re-union with family and friends, I do now, in accordance with the concurrent resolution of both Houses, declare the first session of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-ninth Congress adjourned sine die.

The hall of the House and the galleries were crowded with spectators, watching with interest the closing moments of a session that will be memorable in history. The Speaker's valedictory was listened to in deep silence, and as he spoke the last words, there was an outburst of applause, one of the Democratic members (Mr. Stronse,) crying vehemently three cheers for our noble Speaker. The call was responded to heartily. The parting of members from each other was of the most friendly and even gushing character. Thus closes the first session of the Thirty-ninth Congress.

LOSS BY THE PORTLAND FIRE,

July 4th.

The total amount covered by Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $[illegible],864, on which salvage will be about 5 per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $200,000; and is being promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is 5 per cent. upon the assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our Government and State taxes, paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5,000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The necessity for insurance and the value of wealthy strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak Insurance Companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of thirty-five thousand, was handsomely built, mostly fine brick or stone structures—protected and screened with upwards of three thousand shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a good steam fire department—yet it has $[illegible] property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least occupied, from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.

Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interests, and give the Ætna Agent a call if you need proper insurance security. Policies issued at fair terms.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Jeff. Davis' Complicity With the Assassination Conspiracy—Report of the Judiciary Committee—Brutal Treatment of Union Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The following is the report of the Judiciary Committee on Jeff. Davis: The Committee submit a mass of testimony, showing that the rebel authorities, under the direction of Davis, declined to give negro soldiers and their officers the treatment due to prisoners of war. It is shown that General Kirby Smith objected to their capture in arms, and a letter from him to General Dick Taylor is quoted, in which he says: I have been unofficially informed that some of your troops have captured negroes in arms. I hope this may not be so, and that your subordinates in command of capturing parties may have recognized the propriety of giving no quarters to armed negroes and their officers.

A message of Jeff. Davis is also quoted, in which he proposes that Union officers in command of negro troops shall, when captured, be dealt with as criminals engaged in inciting servile insurrection. With regard to the maltreatment of Union prisoners generally, it is shown that Jeff. Davis declared the Union troops incendiaries and robbers, who had forfeited their claims to be treated as prisoners of war.

A great mass of testimony is adduced to show that the prisoners were treated in accordance with the views of Davis, as above set forth. The documents cited are all of rebel origin, and show that the prisoners at the South were in a frightful condition. The facts were frequently brought to the notice of the Confederate authorities at Richmond, but without avail.

A letter from one Sabina Dismukes, dated at Statesburg, S. C., October 12th, 1864, to Jeff. Davis, says with regard to the suffering prisoners at Florence: "If such things are allowed to continue, they will most surely draw down some awful judgment upon our country. It is a most horrible national sin, that cannot go unpunished. If we cannot give them food and shelter, for God's sake send them back to Yankee land, but don't starve the miserable creatures to death."

The accompanying letter was an article from the Sumter Watchman, giving the details of a visit made by the writer to the prison at Florence. The account is a most horrible one. The prisoners are described as being filthy, diseased, famished, and with no hope of relief except by death. All were in rags, barefooted, and covered with vermin. While the reporter was there a rain storm took place, and he describes the avidity with which the prisoners welcomed it, opening their mouths to catch the drops, while one would wash off another with his hands, and then receive from him the like kind of office.

Considerable space is devoted to the machinations of Clement C. Clay, Beverly Tucker, George W. Saunders, Jacob Thompson, and others in Canada during the war, and it is shown that a portion of the rebel secret service money was paid to one Hymans, who rendered services in conveying boxes of small-pox clothing to be sold in Washington. In connection with these matters a large number of documents are submitted.

In all of these schemes it is shown that Davis was concerned, and the Committee argue that the fact is a bar to the plea that he and his associates were incapable of the crime of assassination. In further confirmation of this view, copies are given of letters from a foreigner named DeKalb, who proposed to blow up the Capitol at Washington when Abe and his myrmidons and the Northern Congress members were assembled there. One of these letters is endorsed by Walker, rebel Secretary of War.

Another letter from one Parramor, stating that he had found a means of disposing of the leading characters at the North in an underhand manner, bears the endorsement of Jefferson Davis himself. Another letter from one H. C. Durham directly proposing the assassination of Seward, Lincoln, Greeley, Prentice &c., written to Jeff. Davis, and referred by him to the rebel Secretary of War, is produced. The Committee urge that these letters prove conclusively that Davis and his Cabinet knew that plots of assassination were on foot.

It is believed the President signed all the bills presented to him, with the exception of that for the admission of Nebraska. It has, therefore, failed to become a law.

The bill making appropriations for certain civil expenses, was, during this afternoon, thought to be in peril, and a report prevailed that it would be returned to the House with the objections of the President, but rumor was disappointed by the announcement of Colonel Moore, the President's Acting Private Secretary, that the bill had received his approval.

The clauses to equalize bounties and to increase the pay of members came near defeating the bill, to which many other interests, public and personal, were attached, owing to the confused manner in which the differences between the two Houses were arranged, namely: through two committees of conference. It is not yet known to what extent they added or reduced appropriations with a view to adjournment. The official publication alone will answer all anxious inquiries.

An unfavorable report was made from the Committee on Commerce on the nomination of Ex-Gov. Johnston to be Collector of Customs at the Port of Philadelphia, but this, together with that of Gen. Steadman, to be Superintendent of Public Printing, and a few other nominations, failed for want of time to receive diplomatic action. The President did not make any nomination for naval officer of the port of New York.

The President and Cabinet were at the capitol attending to business, for about six hours, and remained until adjournment.

Major General Wright, commanding Department of Texas, has issued a general order stating that information had reached him to the effect that some of the persons chosen at the late election, claim to enter without any other authority upon the duties of their office, he orders that the commanding officers of districts, posts and detachments, shall in no way recognize them as officers, but shall continue to support the provisional government and officers appointed under it until such time as that government shall be discontinued by an order from the President.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, July 28, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, were as follows; Gold, 150¼; 1881s, 109⅝; old 5-20s, 107¼; new ditto, 105¼@105⅜; 10-40s, 98⅞; 7-30s 103¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 86¾; Fort Wayne, 101⅞; Erie, 64¾; Western Telegraph, 57¼; Chicago & North Western R. R., preferred, 64¾; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 28¾.

Government bonds were hardly as strong to-day as they were yesterday, and Seven Thirties are quoted a ¼ lower. Eighteen-Eighty Ones are the only bonds that hold their own, and are less liable to suffer from idle reports originated by designing operators. As a general thing, they are in the hands of parties who pay but little attention to the fluctuations of the market, since they hold them as a permanent investment. Gold, in the absence of any later advices from Europe, keeps steady at about 150, and cash gold is reported scarce.

It has been reported in monetary circles for several days past that there was such a large accumulation of National Bank Notes in New York, that they were at a discount, and that bankers were lending them without interest, on condition that the borrower would pay in "greenbacks." We have noticed that for some time past there was an unusually large supply of National Bank Notes in New York, and the reports which have gained currency may to some extent be true; but as long as each National Bank is compelled to receive the notes of other National Banks at par, there need be no fear that that they will be permanently discounted till "greenbacks" are withdrawn to such an extent as to make redemption more difficult than it is at present. The decision of the New York clearing house that all balances must be settled in Legal-Tenders, has doubtless something to do with the irregular proceeding referred to.

—The Chicago Journal, of Friday, says:

A flurry is attempted to be made in the wheat market over the alleged damage the new crop is suffering from rainy weather. According to the reports received within a day or two from various parts of the Northwest, there is as yet but little occasion for alarm. The showery weather seems to extend over all parts of this State, Wisconsin and Iowa, but as yet but little damage has been done to the new wheat.

—Saturday's Titusville Herald says:

The Petroleum markets are unchanged from our previous quotations. Oil to-day was sold with difficulty at $2,50—most of the buyers holding off for lower figures. There is quite a large amount of light gravity oil in the market. The heavy gravities are rather scarce, although no distinction is made in the price. The sales were very limited, only those having short contracts or positive orders to fill at lowest quotation bought in small quantities. There was evidently a run upon certain localities for heavy gravity oils, most of which was monopolized, there being absolutely no demand in other localities for ordinary gravity oils. This caused the market to be stiffer, as it made it appear that several large shippers were in the market, when the fact is that most of them have orders not to buy at present rates.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Cotton steady, but dull at 36c for middling uplands. Flour quite firm for sound low grades, while other descriptions are dull and heavy, at $6,75@8,25 for extra State; $8,15@9,55 for round hooped Ohio, and $9,60@9,75 for trade brands; the market closed quiet. There were no heavy receipts of rye. Receipts of corn 1,022 bushels; prices without decided change, at 83@84c for unsound; 84½@85c for sound mixed western; 90c for yellow western, 95c for sound yellow. Oats rule in the buyers' favor, at 46@47c for Chicago; 48@50c for Milwaukee; 55c for Iowa, and 61c for Jersey. Petroleum is dull, at 23@23½c for crude, and 38@40c for refined in bond. Tide-Water Receipts.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tidewater during the third week in July, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865	28,900	514,600	603,500	8,800
1866	1,700	89,800	1,236,200	......
Dec.	72,200 Dec.	431,700 Inc.	632,700 Dec.	8,800

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tidewater from the commencement of navigation to the 22d of July, inclusive, during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1866	262,600	2,087,100	2,984,100	159,500
1866	101,500	1,269,900	8,000,300	105,300
Dec.	160,700 De.	1,147,500 In.	5,016,200 Dec	54,200

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tidewater this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease of 447,140 bbls flour.

The Wheat Excitement.

The wheat market yesterday was considerably excited, owing to the rumors of unfavorable weather for harvesting operations in the central portions of Illinois and Indiana, and an advance of twelve cents took place on regular No. 1 Spring, on the closing price of the day previous. In this advance history is only repeting itself. On the 24th July last year the market was greatly troubled by reports of heavy rains throughout the country, and an advance of five cents was obtained. The ruling prices that day for No. 1 Spring were $1,14@1,17½—closing at $1,17. Yesterday the figures for regular No. 1 Spring were $1,43½@1,54—closing at the latter. However, as no discrepancy was then made in favor of Northwestern wheat, the actual difference between the prices then and now is fully 55@58c in favor of the latter. The advance in gold is about six cents.—Chicago Tribune 27th.

Ironton Iron Market.

IRONTON, (OHIO) July 25.—The iron business is exceedingly limited just now. There have been no transactions in pig from which actual prices may be ascertained. A firmness is however, exhibited at $50@52 for No. 1 foundry and $47@48 for No. 2 mill. Cold blast is in little demand, but holders are not disposed to concede materially. The amount of pig iron shipped this week has been considerable, but was, in the main, to supply agents. What will be the condition of prices in the future, is rather a dark question to holders, since indications of a brisk market are very few. Nothing is doing in manufactured iron. Operations at the mills are suspended to some extend in order to repair. Stocks are light. The demand for nails has not abated, and prices hold as last quoted.—Register.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO, July 27.—The market was steady and firm, cargo sales were:

85 m, ½ strips balance mixed, at $12,50; 20 m common rafted, largely strips at $18; 160 m uppers at $46 for wide clear; $42 for clear flooring and $30 for common flooring; 80 m, ½ strips, balance good mixed at $19; 90 m, ½ strips, balance mixed at $18 for strips and $16 for mixed; 80 m, ½ strips balance joists and coarse mixed $19; 95 m ¼ strips balance common boards, at $16,75; 80 m ⅓ strips, balance mixed at $17,50; 364 m lath, at $4,31; 75 m coarse mixed at $11,50; 45 m 2x4 joists at $18; 225 m sawed A shingles, at $5; 100 m sawed A shingles at $5.—Tribune.

New York Iron Market.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Pig is held firmly, but the market for both Scotch and American is inactive, the buying being only for the supply of immediate wants; No. 1 American may be quoted at $47@48; 50 tons sold for September, at the latter price. The sales of Scotch are 100 tons Eglinton at $45, ex-ship; 100 do Glengarnock, $48; and in lots from store, Eglinton $47, Glengarnock $48, and Gartsherrie and Coltness $50. 100 tons American Wrought scrap sold on private terms. Bar is very quiet, indeed there are no invoices offering, but the stock in dealers' hands is ample, and the demand light at previous rates.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, July 26.—Beef Cattle—The offerings during the past week were 587 head, against 885 head previous week. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Inferior $6, common $6,75 @7,50; good $7,50@8,50; and prime $9 per 100 lbs—a few cattle sold at an advance on the above rates, the market closing firm.

Sheep—The market has been rather brisk this week, and prices firm. Sales at $4@5 for stock sheep, and $5@6¼ per lb for fat sheep.

Hogs—The supply in market has been quite equal to the demand this week, with sales at $14.50@15 per 100 lbs net.

Cleveland Grain Market.

CLEVELAND, July 27.—There was a more active demand for wheat to-day, and holders were very firm at an advance of 10@15c over yesterday's prices. Sales 1000 bush No. 1 Milwaukee, before the New York report at $1,90. After the report the market advanced 5c, and we hear of sales of twelve cars No. 1 Spring at $2, 1300 bush good No. 2 red winter at $2.

Corn is firm and in fair demand. Sales 1 car No. 1 mixed from store, at 73c; 3 cars do do, on track at 70c. Oats quiet; sale 1 car No. 1 Ohio at 44c. Flour firm but unchanged.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, July 28, 1866.

The produce markets, generally speaking, have been dull and neglected during the past week, and the indications at present are not encouraging for any immediate improvement. The little flurry in Flour and Wheat occasioned by an advance in Chicago, appears to have almost subsided, and with the exception that holders are a little firmer in their views, the market remains substantially unchanged. The Grocery market is reported stronger, and Sugars, within the past few days, advanced.

GRAIN—Wheat is a shade firmer but unchanged; sale of 1 car No. 1 Spring at $2,10, and 4 cars prime Minnesota Club at $2,20. Oats dull but nominally unchanged; may be quoted at 45@46 for No. 1 Chicago, and 50 to 52 for prime white. Sale of 1 car Shelled Corn at 77; and 800 bush do at 80, free on board. Barley and Rye dull and nominal.

GROCERIES—Rio Coffee is quoted firm at 28 to 30 for good to strictly prime. Sugars firm at 12 to 15 for Raw, according to quality; 18 for hard refined, and 15¾ to 17 for soft do. Porto Rico Molasses is selling at 85 to 90; New Orleans held at $1,15. Rangoon Rice, 10¼@11.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a moderate local demand but unchanged. Sales from store at $10 to $10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11 to $11,50 for half Spring and half Winter; and $12 to $12,50 for all Winter. Cornmeal is quoted at $4 per bbl, and Rye Flour at $6,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm with regular sales at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for Plain Hams and 25½@26 for Sugar Cured. Lard is dull at 21@22. Small sales of Dried Beef at 27@28; and Mess Pork at $33,50.

BUTTER—Is in demand and there is little or none offering. We can report small sales of prime keg Butter at 26; and prime firkin Butter may be quoted at 28@30.

EGGS—Coming in a little more freely, and while the market is apparently a shade easier prices remain unchanged at 22@23.

POTATOES—May be quoted firm and in fair demand at $3,50 per bbl.

APPLES—Are selling at a variety of prices, ranging all the way from $3 to $6 per bbl, according to quality and condition.

HAY—Is steady with a demand up to the supply, and we continue to quote at $20 to $25 per ton, according to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, July 28, 1866

CRUDE—The market has been unsettled and rather dull during the week, the transactions, in the aggregate, being comparatively light, though as compared with last week, prices have undergone no special change. There is some inquiry for future delivery, on the part of refiners, but they want to contract so as to have the oil delivered at a specified time, but owing to the uncertainty of navigation, crude dealers are not willing to ratify any such proposition. The refiner is anxious to purchase and have delivered so as to be enabled to fill his contracts of refined, while the crude dealer is unwilling to take the risk of delivering oil at a specified time, as the river may be in such a condition as to render the delivery impossible, and in that event the seller would be mulcted for damages. On the spot, the demand is somewhat restricted, though we continue to quote at 12 to 12½, packages returned and in bulk, and 17 packages included. Sale of 1000 bbls, to arrive on the first water, at 12½; and 250 bbls, for August delivery, at same price.

REFINED—There was again quite a brisk demand for bonded oil to-day, both for present and future delivery, and while the market is firm and prices fully sustained, we have but few transactions to record. As we have repeatedly remarked, there is but very little oil offering, the majority of our refiners having already sold ahead for four and even six months, and those who have not (and there are but few of them) are holding back in anticipation of a reaction and better prices. We can report sales of 500 bbls to be delivered between the 1st and 15th of August, at 33, free on board cars here; 500 for October, at 36, free on board cars here; 500 for October, at 42, delivered in Philadelphia; and 500,light straw to white, at 37, delivered in Philadelphia. We heard of 42½ having been offered for October, 43 for November, and 44 for December. August may be quoted at 39½ to 40, and September at 40½@41. There is next to nothing doing in free oil, and we quote nominally at 53@54 for prime city brands, in small lots.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals during the week have not been as large as generally predicted, and there is but little oil in market except what is in the hands of speculators. The following were reported to-day:

Jas. Wilkins	269	Brewer & Burke	226
J. Gallagher	296	*Penna. Salt & Co	116
*Duncan & Dunlap	109	McCreight & Co.	55

Total	1061
Receipts for the week	8315
Receipts last week	4925
Receipts since Jan. 1	322,419

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 28.

The Commercial's money article says the activity in the stock market continues. The growing confidence in railroads, encouraged by their liberal earnings is drawing into the market a large outside element of the more substantial class of capitalists who appear to believe very confidently in higher prices for railroad shares.

At this morning's board the chief activity was in Illinois Central, which advanced to 121¾, the ultimate price talked of by the clique being 130; Cleveland and Pittsburgh is not very active, their sales amounting to 8,300 shares, at 85¾@86¾; Cleveland and Toledo was also active at an advance of 1¾; Rock Island and Fort Wayne were bought up freely at an advance. The miscellaneous list shows more activity but is not likely to cause any general attention until the excitement on railroads is exhausted. Governments are quiet at about yesterday's closing prices. Money continues abundant on call loans. The general rate is 5 per cent. with exceptions on government. Collaterals at 4 per cent. Discount remains dull, at 5@6 per cent., being the rate on prime paper. Gold is rather firmer under a continued large demand for custom duties.

The Post's monetary article says there is no change in the loan market. The stock market was dull and heavy at the close. Governments are firm without activity, and railroad shares are irregular. After the Board New York Central was quoted at 104⅞; Erie, 64⅞; Michigan Central, 109¾; Michigan Southern, 83¾; Illinois Central 121⅜. Foreign Exchange is dull. Bills at sixty days on London, 107@108 for commercial, and 108@108⅜ for bankers.

Weekly Review New York Markets.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Flour—The market has been unsettled during the past week. The stock of medium and family grades is comparatively large, and prices have declined from 75c to $1,00 a barrel. The arrivals of low and shipping grades are light, and prices have slightly advanced. We quote extra State at $7,15 a barrel for shipping; Ohio, $9,00@9,95, and St. Louis extras, $12,25@14,50. The exports of the week have been 8,125 barrels against 30,137 barrels for the same time last year. Wheat—There has been a light demand, and prices have declined, closing at $1,95 for No. 2 Milwaukee Club, and $2,05@2,10 for No. 1 and Amber Club. Heavy rains have fallen at the west, which it is feared will do much damage to both winter and spring wheat. We notice the return of two thousand bushels of Amber Michigan from Liverpool, which sold at $2,25. Corn has been active at variable prices. The exports of the week were 918,690 bushels, against 58,400 bushels for the same week last year. We quote mixed western at 84½@85c; yellow, at 90c, and white, at $1,00.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Prints—Empire, 12½c; Freeman, 19c; London Mourning, 17½c; Lancaster, 19c; Lowell, 16½c; Merrimacs, 20½c; do, W, 21½c; Pacific, 19½c. Corset Jeans—Bates, 16c; Laconia, 21c; Naumkeag, 21@26½c. Cambrics—Manville, 14½c; Portland, 11½c; Victory, H, 14½c; Washington, 15½@16c. Sheeting and Shirting, bleached—Amoskeag, 37½c; do, A, 32½c; Androscoggin, 32½c; Anthony Manufacturing Company, 37½c; Bartlet, 30c.

Oswego Market.

OSWEGO, July 28.—Flour in good demand, at a partial advance of 50c per bbl; sales 1800 bbls at $9,50 for No. 1 spring; $11,00@11,50 for red winter; $12,00 for white; $13,00@14,00 for double extra. Wheat firm, at 5c advance for choice spring, which is scarce, with a moderate milling inquiry; sales 11,000 bus. No. 1 Milwaukie club at $1,95. Corn firm; sales last night 8,000 bus. No. 1 Illinois at 70c. Canal freights steady.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with about thirty inches in the channel by the marks last evening. The weather yesterday was excessively hot in the sun, towards evening it clouded up and indicated rain.

The arrivals since our last report include the New State, from Wheeling, and the Yorktown, from St. Louis. The Bayard got up as far as Glass House on Saturday night, and being unable to get over she discharged her freight, and laid up at McKee's Rocks. The tow-boat Ella is also below Glass House unable to get over.

On Saturday, we announced the death of Mitchell Kepheart, second clerk of the steamer Columbia at St. Louis, of cholera, and to-day we have to record the decease of Capt. R. S. Porter, of the same boat, who died at his residence in Sewickly, on Saturday evening, of the same terrible malady. He reached here from St. Louis on Friday evening, and we understand that he was quite unwell before he left there. Capt. Porter possessed many fine traits of character, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

The Louisville Democrat of Friday says:

The steamer Geo. Thompson arrived here night before last with 500 barrels of petroleum "ile" from Pittsburgh. The "ile" was in barrels, and the barrels in barges. It was consigned to Skeene & Co.

We clip the following items from our St. Louis exchanges of Friday:

There is no boat now loading for the Ohio, the Lady Franklin, Nightingale, Wauinita, &c., have laid up, and the stern-wheel Columbia has been chartered to run in the Missouri between Saint Joseph and Omaha. Rates to the Ohio are very low. The Hambleton has a good passenger trip, every room being full.

On July 21st, the Will S. Hays was sold by Emory L. Ford, for $20,000, to J. H. McCormick and others. On Tuesday 24th, Ben. A. Dozier sold one-fourth of the stern wheeler Victory to Amos Abrams, for $7,500, and Joseph Gray sold one-fourth of same steamer to David P. Green for $7,500. Stern wheel steamboat stock is going up.

The Camelia lately chartered by the Illinois River Packet Company, has been laid "laid up," she proving of too heavy draught for the present low stage of the Illinois river. Her place in the line was taken by the Lotus No. 2.

The Importer and W. A. Caldwell left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday. The Commercial of Friday says:

The Cottage No. 2 reports five feet water in the Kanawha, and falling rapidly. One item of W. A Caldwell's cargo consists of 1500 bbls. of flour. The Melnotte and Emperor left the wharf yesterday for the bone-yard. A portion of the R. C Gray's cargo consists of 450 stoves, 1000 kegs nails, and 600 barrels salt. The Maggie Hays will leave for New Orleans to-day. There are five practical steamboat Captains on the Maggie Hays, as follows: Capt. D. L. Hendrickson' Master; Capt. R. H. Porter, Clerk; Capt. Wm. Attenburg and Capt. Wm. Ford, Pilots; and Capt. Johnathan Crane Mate. The Silver Cloud No, 2 will follow the Maggie Hays to New Orleans.

The towboats Sam Roberts, Tom Rees, Hercules, Keystone, Bigley and Geo. Thompson, arrived at Louisville on Thursday last.

We extract the following river items from the St. Louis Democrat of Thursday:

The Lotus No. 2 has been chartered by the Illinois River Packet Company, and will leave to-day for that river.

Messrs R. C. Gray and M. W. Beltzhoover, of Pittsburgh, have arrived at St. Paul for a month's recreation.

A singular sudden death of a steamboatman occurred on a steamboat at our wharf yesterday. Mitchell Kephart, second clerk of the Columbia, a boat laid up at the wharf, was well yesterday. At 12 M. he was corpse, after an illness of three hours. Dr. Van Studdiford and another physician were called, and did their best to save the life of the young man. They pronounce the disease cholera, but one of the officers of the boat who nursed him, and had years of experience in hospitals, thinks his disease was not cholera. Before leaving Pittsburgh, his uncle, Dr. Joseph Dickson, who has a drug store, furnished him with a bottle of Cholera medicine. This was administered to him. Captain Porter telegraphed to his friends.

SEMPER PARATUS.

PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $3.50; Children's Slippers at 10c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime,

PREPARED FOR

G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.
